PRESENT

With corporate India gearing up to implement GST in the next few quarters, Taxsutra brings together the experts from Consultancies, the Government and Industry for a full day session on GST.

The Government of India is likely to implement GST before September 2017 and has crossed several important milestones such as constitutional amendment, release of Model GST Law, important rules and FAQs to the constitution of GST Council. With the paradigm shift in which the new tax regime will work, it becomes imperative to business to plan properly taking into account existing issues as also understanding the issues likely to arise.

Following the success of our two city GST Roundtable in September 2016, the Taxsutra GST Summit shall be held in March - April at Delhi & Mumbai. The Summit date for Delhi is now confirmed for 15th March 2017. The full day program shall consist of a series of panel discussions with an ensemble speaker line-up, from Government, Industry and Consultants.

We are glad to announce premier Business News Channel CNBC TV 18 as 'Media Partner' for GST Summit.

The GST Summit will cover a wide ranging gamut of topics that have been specifically picked from various discussions with Corporate CFOs, board rooms and also from subject matter experts.
