$A = 10 \times B$ ;

B = average monthly salary for the ten months immediately preceding his retirement whether on superannuation or otherwise;

(c) amount as the Central Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf having regard to the limit applicable in this behalf to the employees of that Government; and

(d) actual payment received.

(2) For the purposes of the Table referred to in sub-section (1),—

(a) in respect of the entries against serial number 6 thereof, if gratuity or gratuities was or were received from one or more than one employer in the same tax year (whether or not any gratuity or gratuities was or were received in any earlier tax year), the aggregate amount of deduction shall not exceed—

A - B,

A = the limit specified by the Central Government, by notification; and

B = the aggregate amount of gratuity or gratuities which was or were received in any one or more earlier tax years and allowed as an exemption or a deduction (whether whole or part) from the total income of any such tax year or years;

(b) in respect of the entries against serial numbers 6 and 14 thereof, “Salary” includes dearness allowance, if the terms of employment so provide, but excludes all other allowances and perquisites;

(c) in respect of the entries against serial numbers 10 and 11 thereof, the following amounts shall be deemed to be compensation received at the time of retrenchment:--

(i) compensation received by a workman at the time of the closing down of the undertaking in which he is employed;

(ii) compensation received by a workman, at the time of the transfer (whether by agreement or by operation of law) of the ownership or management of the undertaking in which he is employed, from the employer in relation to that undertaking to a new employer, if—

(A) the service of the workman has been interrupted by such transfer; or

(B) the terms and conditions of service applicable to the workman after such transfer are in any way less favourable to the workman than those applicable to him immediately before such transfer; or

(C) the new employer is, under the terms of such transfer or otherwise, legally not liable to pay to the workman, in the event of his retrenchment or compensation on the basis that his service has been continuous and has not been interrupted by such transfer;

(d) in respect of the entries against serial numbers 10 and 11 thereof, the expressions “employer” and “workman” shall have the same meanings as respectively assigned to them in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947;

(e) the provisions of the entries against serial number 12 thereof shall be subject to the following conditions:--

(i) the applicable schemes of the said companies or authorities or societies or Universities or the institutes referred to in clauses (h)(vii) and (x), governing the payment of such amount are made as per such guidelines (including, inter alia, criteria of economic viability) as may be issued in this behalf;

(ii) where deduction has been allowed to an employee in respect of the said item for any tax year, no deduction thereunder shall be allowed to him in relation to any other tax year; and

(iii) where any relief under section 157 has been allowed to an assessee for any tax year in respect of any amount referred to in the said item, such amount shall not be allowed as a deduction from the compensation received or receivable in any tax year;

(f) in respect of the entries against serial number 14 thereof, if any payment on account of cash equivalent of leave salary is received from one or more than one employer in the same tax year (whether or not any such payment or payments was or were received in any earlier tax year), the aggregate amount of deduction shall not exceed—

A = the limit specified by the Central Government, by notification; and

B = the aggregate amount of payment or payments which was received in any one or more earlier tax years and allowed as an exemption or a deduction (whether whole or part) from total income of any such tax year or years;

(g) the death-cum-retirement gratuity referred to in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 3) shall be as--

(A) received under the revised pension rules of the Central Government, or the Central Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 2021; or

(B) received under any similar scheme applicable--

(i) to the members of the civil services of the Union or holders of posts connected with defence or of civil posts under the Union (such members or holders being persons not governed by the said rules);

(ii) to the members of the all-India services;

(iii) to the members of the civil services of a State or holders of civil posts under a State; or

(iv) to the employees of a local authority;

(h) the schemes of voluntary retirement or termination of service as referred to in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 12) shall be for the employees of--
