

INCOME-TAX ACT, 2025

D: Profits and gains of business or profession

Section 39 - Computation of actual cost.

(1) The actual cost of an asset used for the purposes of the business or profession shall be the actual cost to the assessee, as reduced by the following amounts:—

- (a) part of cost of asset, if any, met by any other person or authority, directly or indirectly;
- (b) goods and services tax paid in respect of which credit of input tax has been claimed and allowed under the relevant law;
- (c) duty of excise or additional duty leviable under section 3 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 in respect of which a claim of credit has been made and allowed under the Central Excise Rules, 1944;
- (d) subsidy, grant or reimbursement, by whatever name called, if any, relating to the acquisition of the asset, received, directly or indirectly, by the assessee from—
 - (i) the Central Government;
 - (ii) a State Government;
 - (iii) any authority established under any law; or
 - (iv) any other person.

(2) The payment or aggregate of payments exceeding ₹10000 in a day for acquisition of an asset or part thereof, made to a person in a mode otherwise than by specified banking or online mode, shall be excluded from the actual cost of that asset.

(3) In a case where the subsidy, grant or reimbursement referred to in sub-section (1)(d) is not directly relating to the asset acquired, the amount of reduction under sub-section (1)(d) shall be determined as under:

A = total amount of subsidy, grant or reimbursement not directly relating to the asset;

B = cost of the asset acquired for which actual cost is to be determined;

C = cost of all the assets in respect of or in reference to which the subsidy or grant or reimbursement is so received.

(4) In circumstances specified under column B of the Table below, the actual cost of the asset shall be as specified in column C thereof.

Table

Specified circumstances	Determination of actual cost
I.
AB	C
1 Where capital asset is transferred by an amalgamating company to an amalgamated company being an Indian company in a scheme of amalgamation.	Actual cost to amalgamated company shall be the same as it would have been if the amalgamating company continued to hold such capital asset for the purpose of its own business.
2 Where capital asset is transferred by a demerged company to a resulting company being an Indian company in a demerger.	Actual cost to resulting company shall be the same as it would have been, if the demerged company had continued to hold such asset for the purpose of its own business. The actual cost shall not exceed the written down value of such asset in the hands of demerged company.

5 Where a building, being the property of the assessee, is put to use for the purpose of business or profession during the tax year.	Actual cost of the building as reduced by the depreciation—
	(a) that would have been allowable had the building been used for the purpose of business or profession from the date of acquisition; and (b) calculated at the rate in force on the date on which the asset was put to use for the purpose of business or profession.
6 Where capital asset is transferred by— (a) a holding company to its subsidiary company; or (b) a subsidiary company to its holding company, and the conditions of section 70(1)(c) and (d), as the case may be, are satisfied.	Actual cost to the transferee company shall be the same as it would have been, if the transferor company had continued to hold such asset for the purpose of its own business.
7 Where an asset, which previously belonged to the assessee and had been used by him for the purpose of his business or profession, is reacquired by the assessee.	(a) Actual cost of the asset in the hands of assessee, as reduced by—
	(i) depreciation actually allowed in respect of tax year commencing on 1st April, 1986 or any earlier tax year; and (ii) depreciation allowable for tax year commencing after 1st April, 1987 under this Act or under the Income Tax Act, 1961(43 of 1961), as if such asset was the only asset in the relevant block of asset; or (b) actual price for which such asset is reacquired by the assessee, whichever is lower.

8 Where an asset is acquired by the assessee from the previous owner and subsequently asset is given back to the previous owner by way of lease, hire or otherwise, and—	Actual cost of asset to the assessee shall be the down value of the asset in the hands of the previous owner at the time of transfer by the previous owner.
(a) the asset was being used for the purpose of business or profession by the previous owner; and
(b) depreciation has been claimed by the previous owner.
9 Where an asset is used in business after it ceases to be used for scientific research related to that business and a deduction is allowable under section 33(3).	Actual cost of asset as reduced by deduction allowed under section 45(1)(a) (i) or under section 35(1)(iv) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961).
10 Where the assessee had acquired an asset outside India, as a non-resident, and the asset is brought to India.	Actual cost of the asset as reduced by the depreciation (a) that would have been allowable had the asset been for the purpose of business or profession in India since date of its acquisition; and
	(b) calculated at the rate in force.
11 Where capital asset is acquired under the scheme of corporatisation of a recognised stock exchange approved by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.	Actual cost of the asset, as if there was no corporatisation.
12 (a) Where deduction under section 46 was allowed in respect of the capital asset—	(a) Actual cost shall be deemed to be nil .
(i) to the assessee; or	(b) Actual cost of the asset as reduced by depreciation,—
(ii) to any person and the assessee acquires or receives such asset through special modes of acquisition from such person.	(i) that would have been allowable had the asset been for the purpose of business since date of acquisition; and
	(ii) calculated at the rate in force.
(b) Where deduction allowed under section 46 in respect of a capital asset becomes deemed income as per section 46(9)(b).
13 Where any amount is paid or payable as interest in connection with the acquisition of an asset.	Actual cost shall not include so much of such amount relating to any period after such asset is first put to use.

(5) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (4), other than serial number 8 of the Table in the said sub-section, in a case where the asset is acquired by the assessee, its actual cost shall be such amount as may be determined by the Assessing Officer having regard to all the circumstances of the case, where—

- (a) the asset was used by any other person for the purposes of his business, before such acquisition; and
- (b) the Assessing Officer is satisfied that the main purpose of the transfer of the asset, directly or indirectly, was to reduce tax liability (by claiming depreciation on enhanced actual cost).

(6) The determination of actual cost under sub-section (5) shall be made with the prior approval of the Joint Commissioner.

(7) For the purposes of this section, “special modes of acquisition” means acquisition—

- (a) by way of a gift or will or an irrevocable trust; or
- (b) upon distribution on the liquidation of a company; or

(c) by such mode of transfer as is referred to in section 70(1)(a), (c), (d), (e), (j), (zd), (ze) and (zf).
