Tax dues.

(a) where-

(i) a single appeal arising out of an order is pending as on the 30th day of June, 2019 before the appellate forum, the total amount of duty which is being disputed in the said appeal;

(ii) more than one appeal arising out of an order, one by the declarant and the other being a departmental appeal, which are pending as on the 30th day of June, 2019 before the appellate forum, the sum of the amount of duty which is being disputed by the declarant in his appeal and the amount of duty being disputed in the departmental appeal:

Provided that nothing contained in the above clauses shall be applicable where such an appeal has been heard finally on or before the 30th day of June, 2019.

Illustration 1: The show cause notice to a declarant was for an amount of duty of Rs.1000 and an amount of penalty of Rs.100. The order was for an amount of duty of Rs.1000 and amount of penalty of Rs.100. The declarant files an appeal against this order. The amount of duty which is being disputed is Rs.1000 and hence the tax dues are Rs.1000.

Illustration 2: The show cause notice to a declarant was for an amount of duty of Rs.1000 and an amount of penalty of Rs.100. The order was for an amount of duty of Rs.900 and penalty of Rs.90. The declarant files an appeal against this order. The amount of duty which is being disputed is Rs.900 and hence tax dues are Rs.900.

Illustration 3: The show cause notice to a declarant was for an amount of duty of Rs.1000 and an amount of penalty of Rs.100. The order was for an amount of duty of Rs.900 and penalty of Rs 90. The declarant files an appeal against this order of determination. The departmental appeal is for an amount of duty of Rs.100 and penalty of Rs.10. The amount of duty which is being disputed is Rs.900 plus Rs.100 i.e Rs.1000 and hence tax dues are Rs.1000.

Illustration 4: The show cause notice to a declarant was for an amount of duty of Rs.1000. The order was for an amount of duty of Rs.1000. The declarant files an appeal against this order of determination. The first appellate authority reduced the amount of duty to Rs.900. The declarant files a second appeal. The amount of duty which is being disputed is Rs.900 and hence tax dues are Rs.900;

(b) where a show cause notice under any of the indirect tax enactment has been received by the declarant on or before the 30th day of June, 2019, then, the amount of duty stated to be payable by the declarant in the said notice:

Provided that if the said notice has been issued to the declarant and other persons making them jointly and severally liable for an amount, then, the amount indicated in the said notice as jointly and severally payable shall be taken to be the amount of duty payable by the declarant;

(c) where an enquiry or investigation or audit is pending against the declarant, the amount of duty payable under any of the indirect tax enactment which has been quantified on or before the 30th day of June, 2019;

PART IV

[See section 2 (13)(c)]

RULES FOR COMPUTATION OF NET AGRICULTURAL INCOME

Rule 1.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (a) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head "Income from other sources" and the provisions of sections 57 to 59 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly:

Provided that sub-section (2) of section 58 shall apply subject to the modification that the reference to section 40A therein shall be construed as not including a reference to sub-sections (3), (3A) and (4) of section 40A.

Rule 2.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act [other than income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue of the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c)] shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" and the provisions of sections 30, 31, 32, 36, 37, 38, 40, 40A [other than sub-sections (3), (3A) and (4) thereof], 41, 43, 43A, 43B and 43C of the Income-tax Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

Rule 3.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (c) of clause (1A) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, being income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue or the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c) shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head "Income from house property" and the provisions of sections 23 to 27 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

Rule 4.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of these rules, in a case—

- (a) where the assessee derives income from sale of tea grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 8 of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee;
- (b) where the assessee derives income from sale of centrifuged latex or cenex or latex based crepes (such as pale latex crepe) or brown crepes (such as estate brown crepe, re-milled crepe, smoked blanket crepe or flat bark crepe) or technically specified block rubbers manufactured or processed by him from rubber plants grown by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 7A of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty-five per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee;
- (c) where the assessee derives income from sale of coffee grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 7B of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty per cent. or seventy-five per cent., as the case may be, of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee.
- Rule 5.—Where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) which in the previous year has either no income chargeable to tax under the Income-tax Act or has total income not exceeding the maximum amount not chargeable to tax in the case of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) but has any agricultural income then, the agricultural income or loss of the association or body shall be computed in accordance with these rules and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income or loss so computed shall be regarded as the agricultural income or loss of the assessee.
- Rule 6.—Where the result of the computation for the previous year in respect of any source of agricultural income is a loss, such loss shall be set off against the income of the assessee, if any, for that previous year from any other source of agricultural income:

Provided that where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income of the association or body, as the case may be, is a loss, such loss shall not be set off against any income of the assessee from any other source of agricultural income.

Rule 7.—Any sum payable by the assessee on account of any tax levied by the State Government on the agricultural income shall be deducted in computing the agricultural income.

Rule 8.—(1) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2019, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 2011 or the 1st day of April, 2012 or the 1st day of April, 2013 or the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018, is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 2 of this Act,—

- (i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2011, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2012 or the 1st day of April, 2013 or the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018,
- (ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2012, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2013 or the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018,
- (iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2013, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018,
- (iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2014, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018,
- (v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2015, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018,
- (vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2016, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2017, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2018,

(viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2018, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2019.

- (2) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2020, or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than the previous year, in such other period, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 2012 or the 1st day of April, 2013 or the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018 or the 1st day of April, 2019, is a loss, then, for the purposes of subsection (10) of section 2 of this Act,—
 - (i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2012, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2013 or the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2019.
 - (ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2013, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2014 or the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018 or the 1st day of April, 2019,
 - (iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2014, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2015 or the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018 or the 1st day of April, 2019,
 - (iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2015, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2016 or the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018 or the 1st day of April, 2019,
 - (v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2016, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2017 or the 1st day of April, 2018 or the 1st day of April, 2019,
 - (vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2017, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2018 or the 1st day of April, 2019,
 - (vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2018, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2019,
 - (viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2019, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2020.

- (3) Where any person deriving any agricultural income from any source has been succeeded in such capacity by another person, otherwise than by inheritance, nothing in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall entitle any person, other than the person incurring the loss, to have it set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2).
- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, no loss which has not been determined by the Assessing Officer under the provisions of these rules or the rules contained in the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2011 (8 of 2011) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2012 (23 of 2012) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2013 (17 of 2013) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2015 (20 of 2015) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2015 (20 of 2015) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2016 (28 of 2016) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2017 (7 of 2017) or the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2018 (13 of 2018) shall be set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2).
- Rule 9.—Where the net result of the computation made in accordance with these rules is a loss, the loss so computed shall be ignored and the net agricultural income shall be deemed to be nil.
- Rule 10.—The provisions of the Income-tax Act relating to procedure for assessment (including the provisions of section 288A relating to rounding off of income) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the computation of the net agricultural income of the assessee as they apply in relation to the assessment of the total income.
- Rule 11.—For the purposes of computing the net agricultural income of the assessee, the Assessing Officer shall have the same powers as he has under the Income-tax Act for the purposes of assessment of the total income.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 2019-20. The notes on clauses explain the various provisions contained in the Bill.

NIRMALA SITHARAMAN.

NEW DELHI; The 26th June, 2019.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No.F.2(16)-B(D)/2019, dated the 26th June, 2019 from Smt. Nirmala Sitharaman, Minister of Finance, to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill, recommends, under clauses (1) and (3) of article 117, read with clause (1) of article 274, of the Constitution of India, the introduction of the Finance (No.2) Bill, 2019 to the Lok Sabha and also recommends to the Lok Sabha the consideration of the Bill.

2. The Bill will be introduced in the Lok Sabha immediately after the presentation of the Budget on the 5th July, 2019.

Notes on clauses

Income-tax

Clause 2, read with the First Schedule to the Bill, specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be levied on income chargeable to tax for the assessment year 2018-2019. Further, it lays down the rates at which tax is to be deducted at source during the financial year 2019-2020 from income other than "Salaries" subject to such deductions under the Income-tax Act; and the rates at which "advance tax" is to be paid, tax is to be deducted at source from, or paid on, income chargeable under the head "Salaries" and tax is to be calculated and charged in special cases for the financial year 2019-2020.

Rates of income-tax for the assessment year 2019-2020

Part I of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income is liable to tax for the assessment year 2019-2020. These rates are the same as those specified in Part III of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2018, for the purposes of deduction of tax at source from "Salaries", computation of "advance tax" and charging of income-tax in special cases during the financial year 2018-2019.

Rates for deduction of tax at source during the financial year 2019-2020 from income other than "Salaries"

Part II of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be deducted at source during the financial year 2019-2020 from income other than "Salaries". The rates are the same, as those specified in Part II of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2018 for the purposes of deduction of income tax at source during the financial year 2018-2019.

The amount of tax so deducted shall be increased by a surcharge in the case of—

- (i) every non-resident being an individual or Hindu undivided family or association of persons or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, or every artificial juridical person referred to in sub-clause (vii) of clause (31) of section 2 of the Incometax Act,—
 - (a) at the rate of ten per cent. of such tax, where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds fifty lakh rupees but does not exceed one crore rupees;
 - (b) at the rate of fifteen per cent. of such tax, where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds one crore rupees but does not exceed two crore rupees;
 - (c) at the rate of twenty five per cent. of such tax, where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds two crore rupees but does not exceed five crore rupees;
 - (d) at the rate of thirty seven per cent. of such tax, where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds five crore rupees;
- (ii) every non-resident being a co-operative society or firm or local authority at the rate of twelve per cent. where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds one crore rupees,
- (iii) every company other than a domestic company at the rate of two per cent. where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds one crore rupees but does not exceed ten crore rupees;
- (iv) every company other than a domestic company at the rate of five per cent. where the income or the aggregate of income paid or likely to be paid and subject to deduction exceeds ten crore rupees.

Rates for deduction of tax at source from "Salaries", computation of "advance tax" and charging of income-tax in special cases during the financial year 2019-2020

Part III of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be deducted at source from, or paid on, income under the head "Salaries" and also the rates at which "advance tax" is to be paid and income-tax is to be calculated or charged in special cases for the financial year 2019-2020.

Paragraph A of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax as under:—

(i) in the case of every individual [other than those specifically mentioned in sub-paras (ii) and (iii)] or Hindu undivided family or every association of persons or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, or every artificial juridical person referred to in sub-clause (vii) of clause (31) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, not being a case to which any other Paragraph of this Part applies:—

Up to Rs. 2,50,000	Nil
Rs. 2,50,001 to Rs. 5,00,000	5 per cent.
Rs. 5,00,001 to Rs. 10,00,000	20 per cent.
Above Rs. 10,00,000	30 per cent.;

(ii) In the case of every individual, being a resident in India, who is of the age of sixty years or more but less than the age of eighty years at any time during the previous year:—

Up to Rs. 3,00,000	Nil
Rs. 3,00,001 to Rs. 5,00,000	5 per cent.
Rs. 5,00,001 to Rs. 10,00,000	20 per cent.
Above Rs. 10,00,000	30 per cent.;

(iii) In the case of every individual, being a resident in India, who is of the age of eighty years or more at any time during the previous year:—

Up to Rs. 5,00,000	Nil
Rs. 5,00,001 to Rs. 10,00,000	20 per cent.
Above Rs. 10,00,000	30 per cent.

The surcharge in cases of persons referred to in this paragraph, having total income above fifty lakh rupees but not above one crore rupees, shall be levied at the rate of ten per cent. In cases of persons referred to in this paragraph, having total income above one crore rupees but not above two crore rupees, surcharge shall be levied at the rate of fifteen per cent. In cases of persons referred to in this paragraph, having total income above two crore rupees but not above five crore rupees, surcharge shall be levied at the rate of twenty five per cent.. In cases of persons referred to in this paragraph, having total income above five crore rupees, surcharge shall be levied at the rate of thirty-seven per cent., Marginal relief will be provided.

Paragraph B of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of every co-operative society. In such cases, the rates of tax will continue to be the same as those specified for assessment year 2019-2020. The surcharge in cases of co-operative societies, having income above one crore rupees shall be levied at the rate of twelve per cent. Marginal relief will be provided.

Paragraph C of this Part specifies the rate of income-tax in the case of every firm. In such cases, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for assessment year 2019-2020. The surcharge in cases of firms, having income above one crore rupees shall be levied at the rate of twelve per cent. Marginal relief will be provided.

Paragraph D of this Part specifies the rate of income-tax in the case of every local authority. In such cases, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for the assessment year 2019-2020. The surcharge in cases of local authorities, having income above one crore rupees shall be levied at the rate of twelve per cent. Marginal relief will be provided.

Paragraph E of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of companies. In the case of domestic companies the rate of income-tax shall be twenty-five-per cent. of the total income where the total turnover or gross receipts of previous year 2017-2018 does not exceed four hundred crore rupees and in all other cases the rate of income-tax shall be thirty per cent. of the total income. In the case of companies other than domestic companies, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for assessment year 2019-2020.

Surcharge in the case of domestic companies having total income above one crore rupees but not above ten crore rupees shall be levied at the rate of seven per cent. In the case of domestic companies having total income above ten crore rupees, surcharge shall be levied at the rate of twelve per cent. In the case of companies other than domestic companies having income above one crore rupees but not above ten crore rupees surcharge shall be levied at the rate of two per cent. In the case of companies other than domestic companies having total income above ten crore rupees, surcharge shall be levied at the rate of five per cent. Marginal relief will be provided.

In all other cases (including sections 115-O, 115QA, 115R, 115TA, 115TD, etc.), the surcharge will be applicable at the rate of twelve per cent.

The existing "Education Cess" and "Secondary and Higher Education Cess" currently being levied in all cases covered under Part 1 of the First Schedule shall be substituted by a new cess by the name of "Health and Education Cess": at the rate of four per cent. However, in financial year 2019-2020, in the cases covered under Part II and Part III of the First Schedule, the "Health and Education Cess" at the rate of four per cent. shall continue to be levied. In the cases covered under Part II of the First Schedule, there will be no levy of the "Health and Education Cess" on tax deducted or collected at source in the case of domestic company and any other person who is resident in India. The cess would apply on tax deducted at source in the case of salary payments. It would also be levied in the cases of persons not resident in India and companies other than domestic company.

Clause 3 of the Bill seeks to amend section 2 of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions.

Clause (19AA) of the said section provides for the definition of the expression demerger for the purpose of providing tax neutrality where the property and liabilities of the undertaking transferred pursuant to the demerger shall be recorded at book value.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to provide that the requirement of recording property and the liabilities at book value shall not be applicable in a case where the property and the liabilities of the undertakings received by a resulting company are recorded at a value different from the value appearing in the books of account of the demerged company immediately before the demerger in compliance to the Indian Accounting Standards specified in Annexure to the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 4 of the Bill seeks to amend section 9 of the Income-tax Act relating to income deemed to accrue or arise in India.

Sub-section (1) of the said section provides for the incomes which shall be deemed to accrue or arise in India.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (viii) to said sub-section so as to provide that certain income, being any sum of money paid or any property situate in India transferred on or after the 5th day of July, 2019 by a person resident in India to a person outside India, shall be deemed to accrue or arise in India.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 5 of the Bill seeks to amend section 9A of the Incometax Act relating to certain activities not to constitute business connection in India.

Sub-section (3) of the said section provides for the conditions to be fulfilled for being an eligible investment fund.

Clause (j) of the said sub-section provides that the monthly average of the corpus of the fund shall not be less than one hundred crore rupees. The first proviso to said clause further provides that where the fund has been established or incorporated in the previous year, the corpus of fund shall not be less than one hundred crore rupees at the end of such previous year.

It is proposed to amend the said proviso so as to provide that where the fund has been established or incorporated in the previous year, the fund shall be required to fulfill the condition of maintaining the corpus of one hundred crore rupees within a period of six months from the last day of the month of its establishment or incorporation, or at the end of such previous year, whichever is later.

Further, clause (m) of said sub-section provides that the remuneration paid by the fund to an eligible fund manager in respect of fund management activity undertaken by him on its behalf is not less than the arm's length price of the said activity.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to provide that the remuneration paid by the fund to an eligible fund manager in respect of fund management activity undertaken by him on its behalf is not less than the amount calculated in such manner as may be prescribed instead of the arm's length price of the said activity.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2019 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2019-2020 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 6 of the Bill seeks to amend section 10 of the Incometax Act relating to incomes not included in total income.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (4C) in the said section so as to provide for exemption in respect of any income by way of interest payable to a non-resident, not being a company, or to a foreign company, by any Indian company or business trust in respect of monies borrowed from a source outside India by way of issue of rupee denominated bond as referred to in clause (ia) of sub-section (2) of section 194LC issued during the period commencing from the 17th September, 2018 and ending on 31st March, 2019.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2019 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2019-2020 and subsequent assessment years.

Further, clause (12A) of the said section provides that any payment from the National Pension System Trust to an employee on closure of his account or on his opting out of the pension scheme referred to in section 80CCD, to the extent it does not exceed forty per cent. of the total amount payable to him at the time of such closure or his opting out of the scheme, shall be exempt from tax.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to increase the said tax exempt amount from forty per cent. to sixty per cent.

It is proposed to insert sub-clause (ix) in the clause (15) so as to provide that any income by way of interest payable to a non-resident by a unit located in an International Financial Services Centre in respect of monies borrowed by it on or after 1st September, 2019 shall be exempted from tax.

It is further proposed to insert an Explanation to define the expressions "International Financial Services Centre" and "unit".

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause (34A) of the said section provides for exemption to any income arising to a shareholder on account of buy-back of shares not being listed on a recognised stock exchange by the company as referred to in section 115QA.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to provide the said exemption also to the income arising to a shareholder on account of buy-back of shares listed on a recognised stock exchange by the company as referred to in section 115QA.

This amendment will take effect from 5th July, 2019.

Clause 7 of the Bill seeks to amend section 12AA of the Incometax Act relating to procedure for registration.

Sub-clause (a) of sub-section (1) of the said section, inter alia, provides that while considering the application of a trust or institution, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may call for documents or information necessary in order to satisfy himself about the genuineness of its activities.

It is proposed to substitute the said sub-clause so as to provide that besides the genuineness of its activities, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner shall also satisfy himself about compliance to the requirements of any other law which is material for the purpose of achieving its objects.

Sub-clause (b) of sub-section (1) of the said section, inter alia, provides that after satisfying himself about the objects of the trust or institution and the genuineness of its activities the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner shall pass an order registering or refusing to register the said trust or institution.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-clause so as to provide that the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, besides satisfying himself about the objects of the trust or institution and the genuineness of its activities, shall also satisfy himself about the compliance to the requirements of any other law which is material for the purpose of achieving its objects.

Sub-section (4) of the said section, inter alia, provides for cancellation of registration if it is noticed that the activities of the exempted entity are being carried out in a manner that either whole or any part of its income would cease to be exempt.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to provide that besides the existing ground of cancellation, the trust or institution has not complied with the provisions of any other law that it was required to comply with due to the reason that the same was material for the purpose of achieving its objects and the order, direction or decree, by whatever name called, holding that such non-compliance has occurred, has either not been disputed or attained finality, shall be an additional ground on which the registration may be cancelled.

These amendments will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 8 of the Bill seeks to amend section 13A of the Incometax Act relating to special provision relating to the incomes of political parties.

The said section provides that any income of a political party which is chargeable under the head "Income from house property" or "Income from other sources" or "Capital Gains" or income from voluntary contributions shall not be included in the total income of the previous year of such political party.

The first proviso to the said section lays down conditions to be satisfied by a political party in order for the provisions of this section to be applicable.

It is proposed to amend clause (d) of the said proviso so as to empower the Board to make rules to prescribe any other electronic mode through which a political party may also receive donations exceeding two thousand rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 9 of the Bill seeks to amend section 35AD of the Incometax Act relating to deduction in respect of expenditure on specified business.

The said section provides for deduction to an assessee of the whole of any expenditure of capital nature incurred, wholly and exclusively, for the purposes of any specified business carried on by him during the previous year in which such expenditure is incurred by him.

Clause (f) of sub-section (8) of the said section provides that the term 'any expenditure of capital nature' shall not include any expenditure in respect of which the assessee makes payment or an aggregate of payments exceeding ten thousand rupees to a person in a day through any mode other than an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or using the electronic clearing system through a bank account.

It is proposed to amend the said clause (f) so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that payment made through such other electronic mode as may be prescribed shall also be allowed as deduction.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 10 of the Bill seeks to amend section 40 of the Income tax Act relating to amounts not deductible.

Sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of the said section provides that where, in case of any assessee, tax is to be deducted at source under Chapter XVII-B on payment of any amount in the nature of interest (not being interest on a loan issued for public subscription before the 1st day of April, 1938), royalty, fees for technical services or other sum chargeable under the Income-tax Act, which is payable outside India, or in India to a non-resident, not being a company or to a foreign company, and where such tax has not been deducted or, after deduction, has not been paid on or before the due date for filling the return of income, the amount of such sum shall not be allowed as a deduction.

The proviso to the said sub-clause specifies that where in respect of any such sum, tax has been deducted in any subsequent year, or has been deducted during the previous year but paid after the due date specified in sub-section (1) of section 139, such sum shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the income of the previous year in which such tax has been paid.

It is proposed to insert a second proviso to the said sub-clause so as to provide that where an assessee fails to deduct the whole or any part of the tax in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XVII-B on any such sum but is not deemed to be an assessee in default under the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 201, then, for the purposes of the said sub-clause, it shall be deemed that the assessee has deducted and paid the tax on such sum on the date of furnishing of return of income by the payee referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 201.

It is further proposed to make a similar consequential amendment in the second proviso to sub-clause (ia) of clause (a) of section 40 to omit the word "resident".

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020, and will, accordingly, apply to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 11 of the Bill seeks to amend section 40A of the Incometax Act relating to expenses or payments not deductible in certain circumstances.

Sub-sections (3), (3A) and (4) of the said section provide for disallowance of any expenditure for which the assessee makes payment (or an aggregate of payments) exceeding ten thousand rupees through any mode other than through an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or using the electronic clearing system through a bank account.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-sections so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that payment made through such other electronic mode as may be prescribed shall also be allowed as deduction.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 12 of the Bill seeks to amend section 43 of the Incometax Act relating to definitions of certain terms relevant to income from profits and gains of business or profession.

Sub-section (1) of the said section defines the term "actual cost" to mean the actual cost of the assets to the assessee, reduced by that portion of the cost thereof, if any, as has been met directly or indirectly by any other person or authority.

The second proviso to sub-section (1) of the said section provides that where the assessee incurs any expenditure for acquisition of any asset or part thereof in respect of which a payment or aggregate of payments made to a person in a day, otherwise than by an account payee cheque drawn on a bank or an account payee bank draft or use of electronic clearing system through a bank account, exceeds ten thousand rupees, such expenditure shall be ignored for the purposes of determination of actual cost.

It is proposed to amend the said second proviso so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that payment made through such electronic mode as may be prescribed shall not be ignored for the purposes of determination of actual cost.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 13 of the Bill seeks to amend section 43B of the Incometax Act relating to certain deductions to be only on actual payment.

Clause (d) of the said section provides that in case of any loan or borrowing from any public financial institution or a State financial corporation or a State industrial investment corporation, deduction of any sum payable by the assessee as interest on such borrowing, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement governing such loan or borrowing, shall be allowed only in computing the income of such borrower in the previous year in which such sum is actually paid by him.

It is proposed to amend the said section by inserting clause (da) to provide that in case of any loan or borrowing from any systemically important non-deposit taking non-banking financial company or a deposit taking non-banking financial company, deduction of any sum payable by the assessee as interest on such borrowing, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreement governing such loan or borrowing, shall be allowed in computing the income of such borrower only in the previous year in which such sum is actually paid by him.

It is further proposed to insert Explanation 3AA in the said section to provide that where a deduction in respect of any sum referred to in clause (da) of this section is allowed in computing the income referred to in section 28 of the previous year (being a previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st April, 2019, or any earlier assessment year) in which the liability to pay such sum was incurred by the assessee, the assessee shall not be entitled to any deduction under this section in respect of such sum in computing the income of the previous year in which the sum is actually paid by him.

It is also proposed to insert Explanation 3CA in the said section to provide that a deduction of any sum, being interest payable under clause (da) of this section, shall be allowed if such interest has been actually paid and any interest referred to in that clause which has been converted into a loan or borrowing shall not be deemed to have been actually paid.

It is also proposed to define the expressions "deposit taking non-banking financial company", "non-banking financial company" and "systemically important non-deposit taking non-banking financial company" in the said Explanation 4 to the said section.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 14 of the Bill seeks to amend section 43CA of the Incometax Act relating to special provision for value of consideration for transfer of assets other than capital assets in certain cases.

Sub-section (3) of the said section provides that where the date of agreement fixing the value of consideration for the transfer of the asset and the date of registration of such transfer of asset are not the same, then the full value of consideration for transfer of such asset shall be the stamp duty value on the date of the agreement.

Sub-section (4) of the said section provides that the provisions of sub-section (3) shall apply only in those cases where the amount of consideration or a part thereof has been received by way of an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or by use of electronic clearing system through a bank account on or before the date of agreement for transfer of the asset.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section (4) so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that the provisions of sub-section (3) shall also apply in respect of those cases where the amount of consideration or a part thereof has been received by way of any other electronic mode as may be prescribed.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 15 of the Bill seeks to amend section 43D of the Incometax Act relating to special provision in case of income of public financial institutions, public companies, etc

Clause (a) of the aforesaid section provides that in the case of a public financial institution, scheduled bank, cooperative bank other than a primary agricultural credit society or a primary cooperative agricultural and rural development bank or a State financial corporation or a State industrial investment corporation, the income by way of interest in relation to certain prescribed categories of bad or doubtful debts shall be chargeable to tax when it is actually received or when it is credited to the profit and loss account of such entity, whichever is earlier.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to insert reference of a deposit-taking non-banking financial company or a systemically important non-deposit taking non-banking financial company in order to extend the benefit of the provision of this section to the said entities

It is further proposed to define the expressions "deposit taking non-banking financial company", "non-banking financial company" and "systemically important non-deposit taking non-banking financial company" in the Explanation to the said section.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 16 of the Bill seeks to amend section 44AD of the Incometax Act relating to special provision for computing profits and gains of business on presumptive basis.

Sub-section (1) of the said section provides that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sections 28 to 43C, in the case of an eligible assessee engaged in an eligible business, a sum equal to eight per cent. of the total turnover or gross receipts of the assessee in the previous year on account of such business or, as the case may be, a sum higher than the aforesaid sum claimed to have been earned by the eligible assessee, shall be deemed to be the profits and gains of such business chargeable to tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

The proviso to the said sub-section (1) provides that in respect of the amount of total turnover or gross receipts which is received by an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or use of electronic clearing system through a bank account during the previous year or before the due date specified in sub-section (1) of section 139 in respect of that previous year, a sum equal to six per cent. or higher shall be deemed to be the profits and gains of business and profession.

It is proposed to amend the said proviso so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that an eligible assessee can opt for presumptive taxation scheme if he declares profit at the rate of six per cent. or higher of the turnover, received through any other electronic mode as may be prescribed.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 17 of the Bill seeks to amend section 47 of the Incometax Act relating to transactions not regarded as transfer.

The provisions of the said section provide that any transfer of a capital asset, being bonds or Global Depository Receipts referred to in sub-section (1) of section 115AC or rupee denominated bond of an Indian company or derivative, made by a non-resident through a recognised stock exchange located in any International Financial Services Centre and where the consideration for such transaction is paid or payable in foreign currency, shall not be regarded as transfer.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to provide that any transfer of a capital asset, being bonds or Global Depository Receipts referred to in sub-section (1) of section 115AC or rupee denominated bond of an Indian company or derivative, made by a specified fund through a recognised stock exchange located in any International Financial Services Centre and where the consideration for such transaction is paid or payable in foreign currency, shall not be regarded as transfer.

It is also proposed to provide that transfer, at a recognised stock exchange located in any International Financial Services Centre, of such other securities as may be notified by the Central Government in this behalf, shall not be regarded as transfer in the hands of a non-resident or a specified fund.

It is also proposed to insert the definitions of the expressions "securities", "specified fund", "trust", "unit" and "convertible foreign exchange" in the Explanation to clause (viiab) of section 47.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 18 of the Bill seeks to amend section 50C of the Incometax Act relating to special provision for full value of consideration in certain cases.

The second proviso to sub-section (1) specifies that the first proviso shall apply only in a case where the amount of consideration or a part thereof has been received by way of an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or by use of electronic clearing system through a bank account on or before the date of agreement for transfer of the asset.

It is proposed to amend the said second proviso so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that the first proviso shall also apply in respect of those cases where the amount of consideration or a part thereof has been received by way of any other electronic mode as may be prescribed.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 19 of the Bill seeks to amend section 50CA of the Incometax Act relating to special provision for full value of consideration for transfer of share other than quoted share.

The said section, inter alia, provides that where the consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer by an assessee of a capital asset, being share of a company other than a quoted share, is less than the fair market value of such share determined in such manner as may be prescribed, the value so determined shall, for the purposes of computing capital gains, be deemed to be the full value of consideration received or accruing as a result of such transfer.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to provide that the provisions of the said section shall not apply to any consideration received or accruing as a result of transfer by such class of persons and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 20 of the Bill seeks to amend section 54GB of the Income-tax Act relating to capital gain on transfer of residential property not to be charged in certain cases.

The said section, inter alia, provides that where the capital gain arises from the transfer of a long-term capital asset, being a residential property (a house or a plot of land), owned by the eligible assessee; and the assessee, before the due date of furnishing of return of income under sub-section (1) of section 139, utilises the net consideration for subscription in the equity shares of an eligible company; and the company has, within one year from the date of subscription in equity shares by the assessee, utilised this amount for purchase of new asset, then, the amount so utilised shall not be charged to tax as the income of the previous year. It is further provided that the new assets shall not be sold or otherwise transferred within a period of five years from the date of their acquisition; the capital gains arising from transfer of residential property made after the 31st day of March, 2017 (in case of eligible start-up, the 31st March, 2019) shall not be eligible for the benefit under the said section; and the assessee shall have more than fifty per cent. share capital or more than fifty per cent. voting rights after the subscription in shares in the eligible company.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to provide that in the case of an eligible start-up, in place of five years, the restriction of three years on transfer from the date of acquisition of new asset, being computer or computer software shall apply; the capital gains arising from transfer of residential property made upto the 31st March, 2021 shall be eligible for the benefit under the said section; and the assessee shall have more than twenty-five per cent. share capital or more than twenty-five per cent. voting rights after the subscription in shares in the eligible company.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 21 of the Bill seeks to amend section 56 of the Incometax Act relating to income from other sources.

Clause (viib) of sub-section (2) of the said section provides that where a company, not being a company in which the public are substantially interested, receives in any previous year, from any person being a resident, any consideration for issue of shares that exceeds the face value of such shares, the aggregate consideration received for such shares as exceeds the fair market value of the shares shall not be charged to tax, if the consideration for issue of shares is received by a venture capital undertaking from a venture capital company or a venture capital fund or by a company from a class or classes of persons as may be notified by the Central Government in this behalf.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to provide that where a company, not being a company in which the public are substantially interested, receives in any previous year, from any person being a resident, any consideration for issue of shares that exceeds the face value of such shares, the aggregate consideration received for such shares as exceeds the fair market value of the shares shall not be charged to tax, if the consideration for issue of shares is received by a venture capital undertaking from a specified fund.

It is further proposed to define the expression "specified fund".

It is also proposed to insert a second proviso to the said clause so as to provide that where the provisions of the said clause have not been applied to a company on account of fulfilment of conditions specified in the notification issued under clause (ii) of the first proviso and the company fails to comply with any of those conditions, then, any consideration received for issue of share that exceeds the face value of such shares shall be deemed to be the income of the company chargeable to income-tax for the previous year in which such failure has taken place.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause (viii) of sub-section (2) of the said section provides that income by way of interest received on compensation or on enhanced compensation referred to in clause (b) of section 145A shall be chargeable to tax.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to substitute the reference of clause (b) of section 145A with the reference of subsection (1) of section 145B therein.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2017 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2017-2018 and subsequent assessment years.

The second proviso to the sub-clause (b) of clause (x) of sub-section (2) of the said section specifies that the first proviso shall apply only in a case where the amount of consideration or a part thereof has been received by way of an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or by use of electronic clearing system through a bank account on or before the date of agreement for transfer of the asset.

It is proposed to amend the said second proviso so as to empower the Board to make rules to provide that the first proviso shall also apply in respect of those cases where the amount of consideration or part thereof has been received by way of any other electronic mode as may be prescribed.

The proviso to the said clause (x) provides that where any person receives, in any previous year, from any person or persons any property without consideration, the aggregate fair market value of which exceeds fifty thousand rupees, the whole of the aggregate fair market value of such property or consideration which is less than the aggregate fair market value of the property by an amount exceeding fifty thousand rupees, then the aggregate fair market value of such property as exceeds such consideration shall be the income of the person receiving such property.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (XI) in the proviso to the said clause (x) so as to provide that any sum of money or any property received from such class of persons and subject to such conditions, as may be provided by rules shall not be the income of such persons.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 22 of the Bill seeks to substitute section 79 of the Incometax Act relating to carry forward and set off of losses in case of certain companies and provides that where a change in shareholding has taken place during the previous year in the case of a company, not being a company in which the public are substantially interested, no loss incurred in any year prior to the previous year shall be carried forward and set off against the income of the previous year, unless on the last day of the previous year, the shares of the company carrying not less than fifty-one per cent. of the voting power were beneficially held by persons who beneficially held shares of the company carrying not less than fifty-one per cent. of the voting power on the last day of the year or years in which the loss was incurred.

The proviso to sub-section (1) of the said section provides that if the above condition is not satisfied in case of an eligible start up as referred to in section 80-IAC, loss incurred in any year prior to the previous year shall still be allowed to be carried forward and set off against the income of the previous year if all the shareholders of such company who held shares carrying voting power on the last day of the year or years in which the loss was incurred, continue to hold those shares on the last day of such previous year and such loss has been incurred during the period of seven years beginning from the year in which such company is incorporated.

Clause (a) of sub-section (2) to the said section provides that nothing contained in the section shall apply to a case where a change in the said voting power and shareholding takes place in a previous year consequent upon the death of a shareholder or on account of transfer of shares by way of gift to any relative of the shareholder making such gift.

Clause (b) of sub-section (2) to the said section provides that nothing contained in the section shall apply to any change in the shareholding of an Indian company which is a subsidiary of a foreign company as a result of amalgamation or demerger of a foreign company subject to the condition that fifty-one per cent. shareholders of amalgamating or demerged foreign company continue to be the shareholders of the amalgamated or the resulting foreign company.

Clause (c) of sub-section (2) to the said section provides that nothing contained in this section shall apply to a company where a change in the shareholding takes place in a previous year pursuant to a resolution plan approved under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.

Clause (d) of sub-section (2) to the said section provides that nothing contained in this section shall apply to a company, and its subsidiaries and the subsidiary of such subsidiary, where,--

(i) the National Company Law Tribunal, on a petition moved by the Central Government under section 241 of the Companies Act, 2013 has suspended the Board of Directors of such company and has appointed new directors which are nominated by the Central Government, under section 242 of the said Act; and

(ii) a change in shareholding of such company, and its subsidiary and the subsidiary of such subsidiary, has taken place in a previous year pursuant to a resolution plan approved by the National Company Law Tribunal under section 242 of the Companies Act, 2013 after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.

The Explanation to the section specifies that a company shall be a subsidiary of other company, if such other company holds more than half in nominal value of the equity share capital of the company.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, be applicable for assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 49 of the Bill seeks to amend section 201 of the Income tax relating to consequences of failure to deduct or pay.

The first proviso to sub-section (1) of the said section provides that any person, including the principal officer of a company specified therein, who fails to deduct the whole or any part of the tax in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XVIIB on the sum paid to a resident or on the sum credited to the account of a resident shall not be deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of such tax if such resident has furnished a return of his income, has taken into account such sum for computing income in such return of income, has paid the tax due on the income declared by him in such return of income and furnishes a certificate to this effect from an accountant in the prescribed form.

It is proposed to amend the said first proviso so as to substitute the word "resident" with the words "payee".

It is further proposed to make a similar amendment in the proviso to sub-section (1A) of the said section.

Sub-section (3) of the said section provides that no order deeming a person to be an assessee in default for failure to deduct the whole or any part of the tax from a payment made to a resident shall be made after the expiry of seven years from the end of the financial year in which payment is made or credit is given.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section to specify that in respect of a correction statement delivered by the assessee under the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 200, no order shall be made under sub-section (1) deeming a person to be an assessee in default for failure to deduct the whole or any part of the tax from a resident, at any time after the expiry of seven years from the end of the financial year in which payment is made or credit is given, or two years from the end of the financial year in which such correction statement is delivered under the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 200, whichever is later.

These amendments will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 50 of the Bill seeks to substitute section 206A of the Income-tax Act relating furnishing of quarterly return in respect of payment of interest to residents without deduction of tax.

Sub-section (1) of the proposed section provides that any banking company or co-operative society or public company referred to in the proviso to clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 194A responsible for paying to a resident any income not exceeding forty thousand rupees, where the payer is a banking company or a co-operative society, and five thousand rupees in any other case by way of interest (other than interest on securities), shall prepare such statement in such form, containing such particulars, for such period, verified in such manner and within such time, as may be prescribed, and deliver or cause to be delivered to the prescribed income-tax authority or to the person authorised by such authority.

Sub-section (2) of the proposed section provides that the Board may, by rules, require any person other than a person mentioned in sub-section (1), responsible for paying to a resident, any income liable for deduction of tax at source under Chapter XVII, to prepare such statement in such form, containing such particulars, for such period, verified in such manner and within such time, as may be prescribed, and to deliver or cause to be delivered to the incometax authority or the authorised person referred to in sub-section (1).

Sub-section (3) of the proposed section provides for the furnishing of a correction statement to add, delete or update the information in the statement delivered under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, in such form and verified in such manner as may be prescribed.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 51 of the Bill seeks to amend section 228A of the Incometax Act relating to recovery of tax in pursuance of agreements with foreign countries.

Sub-section (1) of the said section, inter alia, provides that where an agreement is entered into by the Central Government with the Government of any foreign country for recovery of income-tax under the Income-tax Act and the corresponding law in force in that country and where such foreign country sends a certificate for the recovery of any tax due under such corresponding law from a person having any property in India, the Board, on receipt of such certificate may, forward it to the Tax Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction such property is situated for the recovery of tax in pursuance of agreement with such foreign country.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to provide for tax recovery in cases where details of property of such person are not available but the said person is a resident in India. It is further proposed to amend sub-section (2) of the said section so as to provide for tax recovery where details of property of assessee in default are not available but the said assessee is a resident in a foreign country.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 52 of the Bill seeks to amend section 234A of the Incometax Act relating to interest for defaults in furnishing return of income.

The said section 234A, inter alia, provides for charging of interest for defaults in furnishing return of income.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-clause (iia) in sub-clause (b) of sub-section (1) of said section so as to provide that "any relief of tax allowed under section 89" shall also be reduced from the tax on total income for the purpose of charging interest under the said section.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2007 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2007-08 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 53 of the Bill seeks to amend section 234B of the Incometax Act relating to interest for defaults in payment of advance tax.

The said section 234B, inter alia, provides for charging of interest for defaults in payment of advance tax.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (ia) in Explanation 1 to sub-section (1) of the said section, so as to provide that "any relief of tax allowed under section 89" shall also be reduced from the tax on the total income for the purpose of charging interest under the said section.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2007 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2007-08 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 54 of the Bill seeks to amend section 234C of the Incometax Act relating to interest for deferment of advance tax.

The said section 234C, inter alia, provides for charging of interest for deferment of advance tax.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (ia) in the Explanation to the said section, so as to provide that "any relief of tax allowed under section 89" shall also be reduced from the tax on the returned income for the purpose of charging interest under the said section.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2007 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2007-08 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 55 of the Bill seeks to amend section 239 of the Incometax Act relating to form of claim for refund and limitation.

Sub-section (1) of the said section provides that every claim of refund under Chapter XIX of the said Act shall be made in such form and verified in the such manner as may be prescribed.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to provide that every claim for refund under the said Chapter shall be made by furnishing return in accordance with the provisions of section 139.

It is further proposed to omit sub-section (2) of section 239.

These amendments will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 56 of the Bill seeks to amend section 246A of the Incometax Act relating to appealable orders before Commissioner (Appeals).

Clause (bb) of sub-section (1) of the said section provides that the assessee may appeal to the Commissioner (Appeals) against an order of assessment or reassessment under sub-section (3) of section 92CD.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to provide that the assessee may appeal to the Commissioner (Appeals) against an order made under sub-section (3) of section 92CD.

This amendment is consequential in nature to the amendment of section 92CD.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 57 of the Bill seeks to amend section 269SS of the Income-tax Act relating to mode of taking or accepting certain loans, deposits and specified sum.

The said section prohibits a person from taking or accepting from a depositor any loan or deposit or any specified sum equal to twenty thousand rupees or more otherwise than by an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or by use of electronic clearing system through a bank account.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to empower the Board to make rules to prescribe any other electronic mode for taking or accepting of certain loans, deposits and any specified sum.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 58 of the Bill seeks to amend section 269ST of the Income-tax Act relating to mode of undertaking transactions.

The said section prohibits a person from receiving an amount equal to two lakh rupees or more in aggregate from a person in a day or in respect of a single transaction or in respect of transactions relating to one event or occasion from a person otherwise than by an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or by use of electronic clearing system through a bank account.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to empower the Board to make rules to prescribe any other electronic mode of undertaking transactions.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 59 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 269SU of the Income-tax Act relating to acceptance of payment through prescribed electronic modes.

It is proposed to provide that every person, carrying on business, shall provide facility for accepting payment through the prescribed electronic modes, in addition to the facility for other electronic modes of payment, if any, being provided by such person, if his total sales, turnover or gross receipts, as the case may be, in business exceeds fifty crore rupees during the immediately preceding previous year.

This amendment will take effect from 1st November, 2019.

Clause 60 of the Bill seeks to amend section 269T of the Incometax Act relating to mode of repayment of certain loans or deposits.

The said section prohibits a banking company or a co-operative bank and any other company or co-operative society and any firm or other person from repaying any loan or deposit made with it or any specified advance received by it, in any mode other than by an account payee cheque or an account payee bank draft or by use of electronic clearing system through a bank account, if the amount being repaid is equal to twenty thousand rupees or more.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to empower the Board to make rules to prescribe any other electronic mode of repayment of certain loans or deposits. This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 61 of the Bill seeks to amend section 270A of the Incometax Act relating to penalty for under-reporting and misreporting of income

Sub-section (2) of the said section specifies the condition under which a person shall be considered to have under-reported his income.

Sub-section (3) of the said section provides for the manner in which under-reported income shall be determined.

It is proposed to amend clause (b) and clause (e) of the said sub-section (2) so as to provide that where return is furnished for the first time under section 148, a person shall be considered to have under-reported his income, if the income or deemed income assessed is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax.

It is further proposed to amend sub-clause (b) of clause (i) of the said sub-section (3) so as to provide that where return is furnished for the first time under section 148 in the case of a company, firm or local authority, the amount of income assessed, and in any other case, the difference between the amount of income assessed and the maximum amount not chargeable to tax shall be the under-reported income.

It is also proposed to amend clause (a) of sub-section (10) of section 270A so as to provide that in a case where return is furnished for the first time under section 148, the tax payable in respect of under-reported income shall be the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as increased by the maximum amount not chargeable to tax as if it were the total income.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2017 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2017-2018 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 62 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 271DB of the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 269SU.

It is proposed to provide that if a person who is required to provide facility for accepting payment through the prescribed electronic modes of payment referred to in section 269SU, fails to provide such facility, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five thousand rupees, for every day during which such failure continues.

It is further proposed that the penalty shall not be imposable if the person proves that there were good and sufficient reasons for such failure.

It is also proposed that any such penalty shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner.

This amendment will take effect from 1st November, 2019.

Clause 63 of the Bill seeks to amend section 271FAA of the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for furnishing inaccurate statement of financial transaction or reportable account.

The said section, inter alia, provides for penalty of a sum of fifty thousand rupees if a person referred to in clause (k) of sub-section (1) of section 285BA furnishes inaccurate information in the statement.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to extend the penalty for furnishing inaccurate information in the statement to all the persons referred to in sub-section(1) of section 285BA.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 64 of the Bill seeks to amend section 272B of the Incometax Act relating to penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 139A.

The said section, inter alia, provides for penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 139A.

It is proposed to suitably amend the sub-section (2) of the said section, so that penalty may also be levied on false quoting or non-intimation of Aadhaar number.

It is further proposed that penalty of ten thousand rupees shall be levied for each such default.

It is also proposed to insert a new sub-section (2A) to provide that if a person, who is required to quote and also authenticate his permanent account number or Aadhaar number, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of section (6A), fails to do so, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such default.

It is also proposed to insert a new sub-section (2B) to provide that if a person who is required to ensure that the permanent account number or the Aadhaar number, as the case may be, quote in the documents relating to transaction prescribed in clause (c) of sub-section (5) of section 139A or authenticate such number in respect of transactions prescribed under sub-section (6A) of that section, fails to do so, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such default.

It is also proposed that before passing a penalty order under the proposed new sub-section (2A) and sub-section (2B), a person shall be heard.

These amendments will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 65 of the Bill seeks to amend section 276CC of the Income-tax Act relating to failure to furnish returns of income.

The proviso to the said section, inter alia, provides that a person shall not be proceeded against under the said section, for failure to furnish the return of income in due time, if the tax payable by such person, not being a company, on the total income determined on regular assessment does not exceed three thousand rupees.

It is proposed to amend sub-clause (b) of clause (ii) of the said proviso so as to provide reference of self-assessment tax, if any, paid before the expiry of the assessment year, and tax collected at source in the said proviso, and also to increase the threshold limit of tax payable from three thousand rupees to ten thousand rupees in the said proviso.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2020 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2020-2021 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 66 of the Bill seeks to amend section 285BA of the Income-tax Act relating to obligation to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account.

Sub-section (1) of the said section, inter alia, specifies the persons who are required to furnish statement in respect of specified financial transaction or reportable account.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (I) in the said sub-section so as to provide that a person, other than those referred to in clauses (a) to (k), as may be prescribed, shall also be required to furnish a statement under the said section.

Second proviso to sub-section (3) of the said section specifies that the value or aggregate value of prescribed specified financial transaction during a financial year shall not be less than fifty thousand rupees.

It is further proposed to omit the said proviso.

Sub-section (4) of the said section, inter alia, provides that if the defect in the statement is not rectified within the time specified therein, the statement shall be treated as invalid.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to provide that if the defect in the statement is not rectified within the time specified therein, the provisions of the Act shall apply as if such person had furnished inaccurate information in the statement.

These amendments will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Clause 67 of the Bill seeks to amend section 286 of the Incometax Act relating to furnishing of report in respect of international group.

The provisions of the said section, inter alia, provide for specific reporting regime containing revised standards for transfer pricing documentation and a template for country-by-country reporting.

Sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of sub-section (9) of the said section defines the expression "accounting year" to mean a previous year, in a case where the parent entity or alternate reporting entity is resident in India.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-clause so as to provide that the accounting year in case of an alternate reporting entity, resident in India, whose ultimate parent entity is outside India, shall not mean the previous year but an annual accounting period, with respect to which the parent entity of the international group prepares its financial statements under any law for the time being in force or the applicable accounting standards of the country or territory of which such entity is resident.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2017 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2017-2018 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 68 of the Bill seeks to amend rule 68B of the Second Schedule of the Income-tax Act relating to time limit for sale of attached immovable property.

Sub-rule (1) of the said rule provides that no sale of immovable property attached towards the recovery of tax, penalty, etc., shall be made after the expiry of three years from the end of the financial year in which the order giving rise to a demand of any tax, interest, fine, penalty or any other sum, for the recovery of which the immovable property has been attached, has become conclusive or final, as the case may be.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-rule so as to extend the said period from three years to seven years.

It is further proposed to insert a new proviso in the said sub-rule so as to provide that the Board may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the aforesaid period by a further period not exceeding three years.

This amendment will take effect from 1st September, 2019.

Customs
